Ellen M. Montgomery

Summary of qualifications

- Twenty-nine years of educational experience
- Implementation and origination of the following: a prevention program for dental care awareness for Dr. Douglas Gallagher in Malone, New York; a county-wide foster care training and education program in Franklin County, New York; a Junior Membership program for the Franklin County Historical and Museum Society, Malone, New York; a co-sponsored swim program in Malone, New York; a parochial school in Richmond, New Hampshire; a free educational program on the making of ice cream at co-owned Glenn's Homemade Ice Cream, Melbourne, Florida
- Educator in the following positions: Catechetical instructor for nine years, grade school teacher for fifteen years, high school history and language arts teacher for seven years, catechetical instructor for adults for two years
- Extensive research for the National Register for Historic Landmarks conducted on locations in Malone, New York

Certifications (Certified in all three areas in Florida)
- History 6-12 – Original Certification in New York – Present Certification in Florida
- Elementary 1-6 – Certification in Florida
- Reading Education K-12 – Certification in Florida

Education

- 1972 – Bachelor of Arts in History and Government from Rosary Hill College, Buffalo, New York
- Completed course requirements for certification in Elementary Education at the University of Central Florida and Rollins College
- 2005 – Masters in Reading Education from the University of Central Florida

Professional experience

2003-2006 – Administrator/Teacher Sancta Familia Academy – Kindergarten through 7th Grade

2001-2002 –Volunteer teacher at Sancta Familia Academy – 10th Grade World History

1999-2001 – Third Grade Teacher at Palm Bay Academy, Palm Bay, Florida

1992-1993 – Teacher of 5th, 8th, and 10th Grade in Brooksville, Fl. for Father Bonet's Parish

1990-1992 – Multilevel elementary teacher for grades 3-5, and High School English Teacher at Immaculate Heart of Mary School, Richmond, N.H.

1987-1990 – Served in several grade level positions: grades 1-5, and Junior High History and High School English at St. Benedict School, Still

River, Massachusetts

Additional Professional Activities

Twenty-one hour Clinical Educator Training/Florida Performance Measurement System – September 21, 2000. Certified to supervise any developing teacher using the Formative Process Model or Domains of the Florida Performance Measurement System.

Publications

Co-authored a manual for educators based on a countywide youth historical project involving 100 elementary and high school students. This project was funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities and resulted in a youth directed, written, and executed production based on the life of Almanzo Wilder, Farmer Boy, by Laura Ingalls Wilder.

Revised and updated a manual for Foster Care parents in Franklin County, New York

Volunteer Experience

1994-present – Altar and Rosary Society serving as President, Secretary and Committee Head (Catechetical, Cleaning/Decorating)

1983-present – C.C.D. catechetical teacher – St Mary's Malone, New York; St. Joseph's, Brushton, New York; Chapel of the Holy Family, Melbourne, Florida

1981 to present – Secretary/Treasurer/Director for the Servants of Jesus and Mary – the United States based organization for Father Nicholas Gruner's Fatima Crusader

1974-1987—Franklin County Historical and Museum Society, Malone, New York: Served as Trustee, President, Vice President, Secretary, and head of the Revolving Display Committee and Junior Membership

1986-1987– Four Seasons 4-H Club

1985-1987 -- Girl Scout Leader

Religious Association

Professed Third Order Member of the Slaves of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (1989), Professed Member of the Servants of Jesus and Mary (1985)

Interests and activities

Historical Research, Genealogy (Daughter of the American Revolution), Biking, Music, Piano, Traveling, and Reading