

Kenneth Peldunas

Summary of qualifications

- Eleven years of educational experience
- Educator in the following positions: CCD volunteer for three years, grade school teacher for two years, middle school history, math, Latin, science, religion and language arts teacher for nine years

Certifications (Certified in both areas in Florida)

- Social Science 5 – 9: Former Virginia Certification, Present Florida Certification
- Mathematics 5 – 9: Former Virginia Certification, Present – Florida Certification

Education

- 1986 – Bachelor of Arts in Industrial Management: University of Akron, Akron, Ohio
- 1996 – Masters in Education: Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Virginia

Professional experience

2004-2006 – Teacher of Grades 3-10 at Sancta Familia Academy (all courses)

1997-2004 – Teacher at Andrew Jackson Middle School, Titusville, Florida – 7th and 8th Grade Math, and 7th Grade History

1992-1994 – Taught convoy operations -- US Navy

1978-1994 –Surface Warfare Officer/Enlisted Electronics Technician – US Navy

1973-1978 – Clerk in the Canton, Ohio Public Library

Volunteer

2003 to present – C.C.D. catechetical teacher – Chapel of the Holy Family

Experience

2001 to present – Big Brother Program – working with a youth

Interests and activities

Travel, reading, kayaking, music

